

Gifts Assessment:

Gift of your physical body

Your physical body is an important gift given to you by our Creator. Draw an outline below of yourself and then indicate on that outline an area of personal body strength and any activities you like to undertake. As much as possible, attach the strength or activity to a particular part of your body.